Daily Attendance

Attendance information entered by a teacher will appear as the attendance type, (A)ttendance or (T)ardy in yellow, indicating that the attendance record still needs to be processed by the attendance office. Hovering over an attendance event displays a pop-up window to display, showing the meaning of the code, the course name, teacher, the person who entered the event, and any comments that were entered regarding the attendance event.

Students display on the Daily Attendance tab when:

- the student is actively enrolled on the entered date.

- the student is scheduled into a course section and has an attendance event on the entered date.

Attendance Codes are created in System Administration. These codes vary by state.
