The Request Conflict Report provides a list of courses that have scheduling issues with another course when a student has requested both courses, and how many student requests exist that are in conflict. The report displays course pairs where a student has requested both courses. This report can also be generated from the Schedule Wizard.

Report Logic

The Request Conflicts Report uses entered student requests to determine where that student may have a potential scheduling conflict. Courses considered as required that meet every period display on the report as conflicting with every other course.

This report only looks for sections already placed on the Master Schedule, not the Sections to Build value.

Report Editor

The following defines the report options available on the Report Editor.

Field	Description
Limit Courses	Selection limits report results to the option selected, as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Any Number of Sections</li> <li>• Singletons (1 section)</li> <li>• 2 sections or less</li> <li>• 3 sections or less</li> <li>• 4 sections or less</li> </ul> When Any Number of Sections is selected, all potential course request conflicts are listed, regardless of how many sections exist. When any of the other Limit Courses options are selected, the Limit Courses logic applies to both sides of the comparison courses when looking for conflicts, not just the department or courses of focus in the department or Courses selections. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• When Singletons is selected, only courses with one section are listed.</li> <li>• When 2, 3 or 4 sections or less is selected, only courses with that number of sections or less sections are listed.</li> </ul>
Department	Selection returns course information for courses assigned to the selected department. If departments are not assigned to courses (created in System Administration on the Departments tool and assigned on the Course editor), select courses instead. Either select a Department or a Course.
Courses	Selection returns course conflicts for the selected courses only. Either select a Course or a Department.
Report Format	The report can be generated in either PDF or DOCX format.

Field	Description
Report Generation	Two buttons are available for report generation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Generate Report - displays the report instantly.</li> <li>• Submit to Batch - sends the report to the Batch Queue for generation at a specified time. This option is recommended when generating the report for a large number of students.</li> </ul>

Generate the Request Conflicts Report

For best results, limit the items selected on the Report Editor.

1. Select the types of courses to include on the report in the Limit Courses dropdown list.
2. Select the Department, if desired, from the dropdown list.
3. Or, if not limiting by Department, select the Courses to include in the conflict comparison.
4. Select the desired Report Format.
5. Click Generate Report to generate the report immediately, or use the Submit to Batch to choose when a report generates.
