A report card summarizes a student's progress throughout a school year. Schools can generate report cards for each term within their calendar. Campus provides a standard report card format that prints, or schools can create a report card with the available options. This saved report card is available for selection from the Report Card Batch Report and from the student's Grades tool.

A Conventional Report Card lists the grade report by course number and grading tasks for each selected term. Report cards can also be standards based. See the Standards-Based Report Card article for more information.

Create a Report Card

- 1. Select the New icon. The Report Detail and Report Options editors display.
- 2. Enter a Name for the report card being created. This name can be up to 50 characters in length.

- 3. Select the Report Card option from the Type dropdown list.
- 4. Determine whether or not this report should be available in Campus Instruction and in Campus Parent/Campus Student. If so, mark the Instruction and Portal checkboxes for Available In. See the Report Setup article for information on these options; see the Report Cards (Instruction) article for more information when marking the Instruction checkbox.
- 5. If desired, enter a Description for this report. This description can be up to 200 characters.
- 6. Select all appropriate Report Options, as defined below.
- 7. Click the Save icon when finished. Once saved, the report displays in the Report Editor and can also be selected on the Report Card in the Grading and Standards Reports section.

Option	Description
Additional space for terms	If a calendar has more than five terms that are being included on the report card, mark this checkbox. This adjusts the PDF layout for readability. When all terms are included in a report card, or when all standards/grading tasks are included, the report card prints on multiple pages. Save paper by printing on both sides.
Prepare report for full duplex printing	When marked, all of the report cards in the selection are formatted to print on both the front and back side of the paper.
	This also applies when a student or parent prints the report card from the Campus Portal.
Header Options

Selections indicate which student identifiers print at the beginning of the report card.

Also included in the Header is identifying information, like the student's name, grade level and the name of the report card.

Option	Description
Student ID	Student's local identification number found on the Demographics tool.
State ID	Student's state identification number found on the Demographics tool.
Student Counselor	Student's school-assigned Counselor as listed on the student's Team Members (Counseling) tool.
Homeroom Teacher	 When marked, the student's homeroom teacher prints on the report card. Homeroom must be marked on the Course Editor and/or Section Editor. If a student is scheduled into multiple sections marked as homeroom, the teacher with the last name that is higher in the alphabet prints. For example, a homeroom teacher of Ferguson is printed when a student is in Teacher Ferguson's homeroom and Teacher Williams' homeroom.
	 Homeroom Teacher The Teacher's name prints when the Homeroom checkbox is marked on the Course Editor or the Section editor. If more than one teacher is assigned to a section, the first two names print on the Report Card. If no teacher is assigned to the section, no teacher name prints on the Report Card. If a student moves to a new homeroom section, the teacher of the new homeroom prints on the Report Card. If the student is NOT enrolled in a Course/Section marked as homeroom, N/A prints on the Report Card. If the student ended enrollment in the Course/Section, the former homeroom teacher's name prints on the Report Card.
Date/Time Stamp	Prints the date and time when the report was generated.

Option Description

Attendance Summary

Selections indicate how the attendance information displays on the report card. To include Attendance information, first mark the Attendance Summary checkbox, then mark the terms to include. When only one term is selected, no Total column of attendance events prints; a total column only prints when more than one term is selected.

Attendance entered for non-instructional periods and courses not marked for attendance do NOT appear on the report card.

Information in the letter sub-reports uses data stored in the AttendanceDayAggregation table. This means that attendance data for the current date is accurate as of the previous night's attendance calculation, or the last time the Attendance Aggregation Refresh was run. If needed, the Attendance Aggregation Refresh tool can be run to force an attendance recalculation to pull in the current day's data.

Select Terms

Select the terms for which to print attendance. Mark the Schedule Structure and Term, and then mark the desired Term checkboxes (Term Q1, Term Q2, etc.).

If only one term is selected (first image), the report card does not print a total column. If more than one term is selected, a Total column prints, in addition to the selected terms (second image).

Cumulative GPA

Cumulative GPA is based on students' historical grades, or grades posted on the student's Transcript. Options are available for displaying normal GPA and unweighted GPA, and either can display bonus points.

See the GPA Calculations article for detailed information on the calculations used to find GPA.

Option	Description
GPA Calculation	Allows selection of either the Campus Cumulative GPA (most districts use this) or a Custom GPA Calculation (where a special stored procedure or course weighting is used). Using the Campus Cumulative GPA option allows the selection of a Calculation Type. Using a custom GPA calculation does not allow selection of a calculation type.
	Cumulative GPA Class Rank 1 2 3 4 3.38 64 of 125 Term GPA 3.33
GPA Calculation Type	When using the Campus Cumulative GPA option is selection, a Calculation Type must be chosen. See the GPA Calculations in Campus article for explanations on weighted vs. unweighted.
Class Rank
Class Rank	Class Rank is the student's placement in the class and is based on transcript scores. $\begin{array}{r} \hline \textbf{GPA Summary:} \\ \hline \textbf{GPA Summary:} \hline \textbf{GPA Summary:} \\ \hline \textbf{GPA Summary:} \hline GP$ with Bonus Points	Printing the class rank with bonus points changes the student's ranking in the grade level. Bonus points are awarded at the score/mark level of a particular course. Students receive bonus points based on the score earned (e.g., an "A" may receive a bonus point, whereas a "C" may not). See the Using Bonus Points section of the GPA Calculations article for more information.
	When bonus points are marked to print with the GPA, the Class Rank should also include bonus points.
allow the class rank ca ranking (a rank appear	cluded in class rank calculations or if the settings of the report card do not lculation to occur, the printed report card reads Excluded instead of a rs as 5 of 250, where the student is ranked as number 5 in a class of 250 d in the class rank calculation).
If the class rank option	is not selected, the column for Class Rank does not display.

Option	Description
Period
This selection adds the	period number or name before the Course Section name.

Score Comments

A teacher has the ability to enter grades for the grading task as well as comments related to that score or to the student's behavior, etc. This mark displays the comment on the report card for the selected terms. When more than one term is selected, an indication of that term displays on the report card.

Mark the option to print Score Comments and then select the terms for which to print the comments. If no terms are selected, no comments print.

One Term	Displaying comments for one term only prints the comments for the selected term.
Multiple Terms	Displaying comments for multiple terms prints the comments in term order (Term 1 comments, Term 2 comments, etc.).

When selected, the student's legal first name, legal middle name, legal last name and legal suffix print if entered in the Protected Identity information and if the user has tool rights to Protected Identity Information (users need at least Read rights to Protected Identity Information).

The Effective Date on the Identity Record is not considered when printing the Protected Identity information on a report card. As long as the those protected identity fields are populated on the current Identity record, the legal first/last/middle/suffix values print.

When the legal first name or legal last name is not populated or if the user does not have tool rights to this information, the student's first name and last name reports from the First Name and Last Name fields on the student's current Identity record.

Option Description

Term GPA

This number reflects the grades given for the term and does not use transcript information to calculate. This can also be displayed with bonus points.

See the GPA Calculations article for detailed information on the calculations used to find GPA.

Weighted, Unweighted	This value is the student's average of scores within a specified term.
with Bonus Points	Prints the Term GPA with Bonus Points changes the student's GPA. Bonus points are awarded at the score/mark level of a particular course. Students receive bonus points based on the score earned (e.g., an "A" may receive a bonus point, whereas a "C" may not). See the Using Bonus Points section of the GPA Calculations article for more information.

Mailing Label Options

Report cards can be printed for mailing or printed for handing out in class. They can also be printed with or without being addressed to the student's parent/guardian.

Student's Primary Household Only	Prints report cards for the student's primary household. Any individual in that household or related to that household who is marked for mailing on the relationship receives a report card. Household addresses can be primary or secondary.
No Mailing Label	Prints the report card without an address. This can be used to hand out report cards in class. This should not be marked if the other mailing label options are marked.
Recipient Names	Prints the actual names of the individuals receiving the report card, instead of To the parent/guardian of . Names print in the first two lines of the address with first and last names.

Conventional Report Card Examples

The following images provide examples of Conventional Report Cards. Included are examples from elementary schools, middle schools and high schools, with a variety of options.

Be aware there is limited header space (six lines) when printing the report card. Only choose the options that are absolutely necessary to include on a report card.

When all Header Options are selected, when student names are long and wrap to a second line, when counselor names are long and wrap to a second line, when the report card is sorted in a specific way, information included in the header of the report card (the information that includes the student name and other preferences) may not display all chosen information.
