Cross-Site Enrollment

Campus is developing new tools to help districts address the need to manage students who attend courses offered by other schools in their district, and to collect and report data associated with those cross-site enrollments. Watch this overview video for more information.